OUTSIDE MY WINDOW

Look outside your window for ten minutes. Observe the people, traffic, sky, animals, etc. Pay attention to your thoughts as you observe them. Write for ten minutes about what you saw and how you felt.

A large rectangular area with horizontal lines for writing. In the center, there is a stylized illustration of a person with dark hair, wearing a grey shirt, sitting and looking out a window. The window has a white frame and a grid pattern. Two green plants in purple pots are on either side of the person. The background of the illustration is a light pink color with faint, larger grid lines.

A GREAT FIRST LINE

Take a first line out of one of your favourite books. Write it down then create your own story from it.

A series of horizontal lines for writing, with a stylized illustration of an open book and a red bookmark in the background.

CONTINUE THE STORY

Reread the ending of a book you have recently finished. Were you satisfied with the ending? Are there any questions left unanswered? Does it end on a cliffhanger? What do you think happens afterwards? Continue the story.

THE FIRST TIME I TRIED

Think about one of your first experiences trying something new. Maybe it's food, an activity, a skill, conquering a fear. What was it like? Describe your experience.

NEVER HAVE I EVER

What is something you've never done but would like to do? Maybe something you want to learn, a place you'd like to go, something that scares you, out of your comfort zone... Write it down and include reasons why you haven't done it yet. What's stopping you or getting in the way?
